

Abraham
Dearborn
contd.

(1)

Geoffrey Dearborn was of English Descent coming to Exeter Eng to Exeter N.H. in 1639 in 1650 he moved to Hampton N.H. and married. three sons were born to him. From one of these sprang Gen. John Dearborn of Revolutionary War 1812 fame
The great grand son of Geoffrey Dearborn Reuben Dearborn was born there in 1769 removed to Candia in 1792 married Elizabeth McClure whose grandfather David McClure came from Edinburg Scotland in 1720 & married Martha Glynn, she sprang from a family of Scotch nobles who were Covenanters and fled from Papal persecution to Boston. Elizabeth McClure's father ^{James} McClure grand father on her mother's side

Dea. Nathaniel Burpee were soldiers in the Revolutionary war
 The children of Ruben^{2d} & Elizabeth McClure Dearborn were

- (1) Hagar born 1795 died 1802
- (2) Hannah " 1797 " 1881
- (3) Eliza " 1799 " 1800
- (4) William " 1801 " 1892
- (5) Eliza " 1803 " 1891
- (6) David " 1804 " 1805
- (7) Russell " 1806 " 1878
- (8) Jane " 1808 " 1889
- (9) Sally " 1810 " 1818
- (10) Lucio " 1813 " 1890
- (11) James " 1816 " 1868

These were all born in North Woodstock where Ruben Dearborn settled soon after marriage

(31)

James McClure Dearborn ^{the} youngest of Ruben Dearborn's children came to Canterbury about 1842 or '43 in 1849 he married Susanna Emory Fellows and settled on the place now owned by F. P. Dow About 1864 he removed to the Enoch Gibson farm where his son Alvah J. now resides
The children of James McClure Dearborn and Susanna Emory Dearborn were

- 1) Alla J. born Jan. 15 1850. married ~~Charles~~ ^{Charles} Mealy Carter of Canterbury resides in Boscaum
- 2) Alvah J. born Oct 13. 1851 married Adah B. Cochran of Walpole

NR6

These children are

4th page
for addition to the list of children not returned - Dearborn

Ms A.J. Dearborn's additional dates.

Supp
(p. 251)

Copied

Dear Miss Brown:

I rec'd your request and will say Samuel was born in Canterbury June 30 1886. Fred at the same place Oct 4. 1888

Susie's baby was born Aug 5. 1910 name Abrah
Dearborn Willson

Yours Sincerely

Adah B. Dearborn