which I hope may be of

Very truly yours,

Excuse Mrs. Merrill from making as extended a reply as her ability would warrant her to do. I am unable to give you as much as I wish I might. I shall go to Conterbury quite soon and if I can gather any things to make a more complete set I will send them later.

Tradition claims the Jones' origin was from Wales.

The first Jones settled in Conterbury came from Lee N.H.

Settled on what is known as Jones Hill between Ed. Rowley and the Shakers.

He had 3 sons and I think 2 or more daughters,
One son named Ben of him but latter is known. Another son Henry married a Hazleton

It is

My impression that some married but had no children William married and had quite a large family some of his sons were in service in the civil war one of them Stephen receiving a wound by bullet which passed through one of his lungs from which he recovered I am unable to further say in regard to the children Sam & William both died in 1879 at Wheelock

A sister of Henry married a John Morrill and later in life they lived at Rumney N.H. I think they had one daughter also who married a Morice.

They had no children. I think John Morice, wife & daughter all died in Rumney, N.H.
I am not certain but I think another sister married a Moses Pickard They removed to New Orleans N.H. and without children died there. The remaining brother Samuel married Sophia Perkins daughter of Henry Perkins a scholarly man who served in the Revolutionary war Samuel and Sophia had five children 2 sons and 3 daughters Rev S. May, the name of the one

I cannot at this time recall as she died quite young Lucenia June and Charles, one son and 2 daughters never married having died in early life. Lucenia June is buried at the Baptist Cemetery the monument marking her grave being the landmark of her 2 brothers Geo S, and Charles who both were stone cutters, Geo S, died near Boston Mary married a Mr Morey they had 2 children Daniel dying with Mary in Boston many years ago. Mary died in the same city. Sophia died with Charles at the Jones home in Haverhill about 1860

My dear Friend,

I found in a little old book today the following birth record, which seems to be the complete record of my father's family, that is, brothers and sisters including his own, and am sending it to you as it may help to complete our record in the history, although you may already have it.
