John Keger was the son of Edmund Keger of Northfield and came to Canterbury about 1826.

Previous to this he had married and moved to Stewart'stown and after living there ten years had returned to care for the home and parents of his wife Susannah daughter of Miles Houghton living where. Mr. Morgan now lives. His active industry, practical ability, and frugality governed by Christianity, was rewarded by a competency to bestow liberally for the benevolent objects of his day. The last being in aid of Educational interests in his home district to & —

He had a brother Eben^{son} who died with his nephew Edward Osgood in the brick house on the West road in Canterbury.
He had a sister Mary who used to visit at Sue Chase's years ago. She was a married lady, ~~and lived~~ Mrs. Merrill and lived in Stewartston as did most of the Kezer family - a numerous family I think - Probably the Belmont ~~lady~~[#] has their history.

Mrs. Kate K. Wells, Belmont.
